Partnership 介绍!!!

Hi,

Thank you very much for the response.

We are looking for long term partners. Also we are open to hear your thoughts.

How Our Partnership Works:

Partner-Level Referral: We primarily operate on a referral basis initially. For a creator of your caliber, we will directly on-board you at our Partner level so you earn the highest commissions on card applications and user transactions.

Creative Freedom & Monthly campaign: You have 100% creative freedom to promote across any platform. We also run exclusive monthly creator promotions to help you maximize your referral earnings.

Flexible Collaboration Models: Beyond the referral structure, we are open to exploring any other forms of collaboration that suit your style. We are happy to discuss and negotiate customized terms to ensure a mutually beneficial partnership.

Income Details underneath:

Check the Exclusive Tier Referral Program structure:

- Card activation commission (40%, up to 40USD per card)
- commission on spending (0.25% on commission on spending)
- Tier 2 commission (10% from your sub-partners)
- Partner Perk: Custom 20% discount code for your audience.

Incentive Campaign(up to $300 extra rewards):

Referral program 提成介绍

Thank you very much for the response.

Let me introduce our Exclusive Tier Referral Program, designed to offer our premier partners a highly competitive compensation structure:

- Card activation commission (40%, up to 40USD per card)
- commission on spending (0.25% on commission on spending)
- Tier 2 commission (10% from your sub-partners)
- Partner Perk: Custom 20% discount code for your audience.

Incentive campaign every month (up to $300)

It's a referral promotion program where you can earn a 40% commission on every card purchase you promote. This means you'll earn $4 for each virtual card and $40 for each physical card. Additionally, you'll receive a 0.25% on commission on spending.

For more details: <https://helpcenter.redotpay.com/en/articles/10339296-invite-friends-get-rewards>

We are open to paid collaborations, though we primarily operate on a referral basis initially. We suggest a 2-4 week trial period where you promote our link to demonstrate audience engagement. Based on the results, we are ready to move forward with formal paid assignments and explore more extensive collaboration opportunities with you.

I am looking forward to your response. Happy to discuss the details with you.

如果要付费

We usually work on a referral-based model, but we're also open to discussing an upfront fee. That said, the upfront would typically be a smaller part of your total potential earnings — more as a guarantee, which we fully understand.

What we're looking for is a long-term partner, so we'd prefer to start with a paid trial: one video plus a post in your private group. The initial budget would be relatively controlled, but after 2–4 weeks, we'll have clear performance data and can then move forward with a long-term contract based on the results.

如果想要实体卡

The process on my side would be as follows:

1. First, please download our app and complete KYC. Share me your RedotPay ID.
2. I'll upgrade your account to partner status.
3. I'll provide you with a virtual card first, so you can test and experience the product.
4. After you publish the first video, I'll use the video link to apply for a physical card for you.

Please understand that, according to our policy, physical cards can only be provided to creators we have already collaborated with. I'll do my best to help you apply once the first collaboration is completed.

Template for applying for a 20% discount card

We can provide exclusive promo codes, with a 20% off discount for both virtual card and physical card. an exclusive 20% discount code. Even if this user didn't register via your referral code, if they use this exclusive 20% discount code, we can still rebind it to your UID. But the prerequisite is that this user must not have registered using someone else's registration link — once they have a fixed referrer, it cannot be changed. Also, the account must not have activated any card before. Due to the promotional discount applied, commissions are calculated based on the card's discounted price.

Here's a application format for your promo code

UID:

Code for virtual card:

Code for physical card:

Note: Each code should be between 5–10 characters, and the virtual and physical card codes must be different.

Please create discount virtual and physical card codes and send them to me (You need to create a code and come up with it yourself.) , and I will apply the discount code for you.

For example:

UID:1XXXXXX

Code for virtual card: apple1

Code for physical card:apple2

Hi there! Could you please share your social media links or website, your email address, and your affiliate program UID? Thank you! 😊

Here's the thing — I can help upgrade your affiliate account to Level 4. Right now you're at Level 1, and the commission rates are quite different between the two.

On top of that, our app actually has a really great experience — smooth interface, solid mechanics, and some nice perks. So what I can do is: first get your affiliate account upgraded to Level 4, and then also help upgrade your app account as well. And if you don't have a card on the app yet, I can send you one on us. 📺

Subject: Collaboration Opportunities: Bringing Next-Gen FinTech to [University Name]

Hi [Name/Club Team],

I'm Kenny from RedotPay. We've been closely following the amazing community you've built at [University Name]. Since your members are always at the forefront of new developments, we wanted to introduce you to the latest trend in digital finance-exploring some interesting ways to collaborate.

RedotPay is a next-gen FinTech company that's completely changing how young professionals and students handle global payments. We've built a super intuitive Visa card that lets users spend cryptocurrency exactly like local fiat money. Whether it's paying for a ChatGPT Plus subscription, buying coffee on campus, or covering travel expenses, we make the Web3 experience real, frictionless, and actually fun to use in everyday life.

We are currently selecting top-tier universities for our campus rollout, and we'd love to bring this new tech wave to your members. Here is what a collaboration could look like:

- Resume-Building Ambassador Program: An official RedotPay Campus Ambassador program offering students real-world marketing experience in the Web3/FinTech space and certified references to boost their future careers.
- Tech & Career Insights: We can co-host engaging, interactive sessions or provide industry insights on how FinTech and stablecoins are reshaping the future of money.
- Possible Virtual Cards: We can provide your members with access to virtual cards and special welcome bonuses so they can experience this new payment trend firsthand.
- Event Sponsorship: Financial support and prize pools for your upcoming campus festivals, hackathons, or club operations.

We currently offer upfront mainly to KOLs we've worked with before. For new partners, we usually test first.

If the results are good within 2–4 weeks, we can move to a long-term contract and discuss upfront budget.

For paid collaboration, please first share past performance data from similar campaigns, such as prop firms, exchanges, or card/payment products.

We can start with a trial video and trial post in your private group with a small initial budget. After 2–4 weeks, if the data performs well, we can discuss a long-term contract with much higher budget.

Can you refer any creator friends to us? 😊 Benefits below:

1. You earn 10% of their commission as a bonus
2. I'll give them a free card — In monthly challenge, 10 cards = $50 for you
3. I will prepare extra gifts or rewards if you can refer me to a few influencers.
